Thoughts for Further Study:

1. Deuteronomy 20:1 takes the Israelites back to their escape from Egypt. Why is that important for them and for us today?
2. What was the importance of the statement, given in the message, that Israel had no chariots or horses?
3. Why does God keep telling Israel (Joshua) to not be afraid?
4. The most important lesson in this passage, I dare say this book, is that Israel needed to look to the past to face today. Why is this so important?
5. How long are God's promises good for?
6. What is the importance that the 'sons of Anak' were pushed out of the land? Is it significant that they were pushed into Gath?
