Point 1

What was true at the start of Revelation, remains true in the end.
(Revelation 1:1-8, 22:6-13)

Point 2

The Reliability of the entirety of this prophecy.
(Revelation 22:6, 13; 2 Timothy 3:16; 2 Peter 1:20)

Point 3

The Centrality of God's word in the life of the believer.
(Revelation 22:6-10)

Point 4

The Expectancy of Christ's soon return.
(Revelation 22:6-7, 10, 12, 20, 16:15; Matthew 24:42, 44, 25:13; Hebrews 9:28;
1 Thessalonians 5:2; Luke 12:40; Titus 2:13, 1 John 3:2-3)

Point 5

The Necessity of rightly responding to God's revelation.
(Daniel 12:4; Revelation 22:10-12; Romans 12:1; 1 John 2:28)

Application Questions:

On a scale of 1-10 (1 = Not at all 10 = In every way)

- How central of a role does God's word play in your life?
 - In what specific ways do you see the centrality of His word most evident?
 - In what specific ways do you see the centrality of His word least evident?
- How much does the promise of the soon return of Christ impact who you are and how you live?
 - In what specific ways do you see this promise shaping your life?
 - What changes might you make to your life if you knew His return was in your lifetime?
- Are there ways you sense God's Spirit asking you to respond, either to what has been revealed to you today, or has been revealed to you in the past?
 - What is the next step of obedience in response to His leading?
