

Date: February 16, 2025
Series: The Book of Judges: Mankind Exposed
Title: Finding Comfort in the Unsettling Providence of God
Text: Judges 3:7–31

Introduction: (v. 7; Exodus 20:4-5)

- Why was the worship of Ba'al and the Ashteroth so heinous to God?

I. God's love fuels His _____ to preserve a faithful people. (v. 8; 2:20)

II. God sovereignly fulfills His _____ purposes, even through human evil. (v. 9)

III. God's lovingkindness is _____ by the unworthiness of His people. (v. 10-11)

IV. God purposes often unfold through the unlikely and the _____. (v. 12-26)

- What people and circumstances are surprising or unsettling in v. 12-26?

V. God often uses one person's _____ _____ to strengthen many. (v. 27-31)

Conclusion: God hears the cry of His people and acts in surprising ways to deliver them, foreshadowing the ultimate _____ through Jesus Christ.