Text: 1 Corinthians 15:3-23

1. Without the resurrection, faith in Christ is not only meaningless for eternity, but also worthless for today. (v. 12-19)

Scriptures: Ephesians 1:19-20

Notes:

“If Jesus rose from the dead, then you have to accept all that he said; if he didn’t rise from the dead, then why worry about any of what he said?”
(Tim Keller, “The Reason for God: Belief in an Age of Skepticism”)

2. The resurrection was repeatedly witnessed and faithfully recorded, assuring its ongoing impact for both today and eternity. (v. 3-11)

Scriptures: Acts 1:3

Notes:

3. A new eternal reality has dawned through Jesus’ resurrection, making our faith not only eternally significant, but also powerfully relevant for our lives today. (v. 20-23)

Scriptures: Romans 8:11; Isaiah 53:11; 2 Corinthians 5:21; Romans 10:9

Notes:

“A Christian is a person with a burning heart, a heart set aflame with certainty of the resurrection.” (R.C. Sproul, “Following Christ”)

Conclusion: The resurrection of Jesus Christ isn't just a historical event to acknowledge; it's a present reality that demands a response.
