Series: Philippians: Triumphant, Tenacious, Battle-Tested Joy

Title: We Have a Job to Do

Text: Philippians 3:17-21

- I. If we are disciples of Jesus, then we are called to be disciplers of men.
(Matthew 28:18-20; 1 Corinthians 11:1)

- II. As Disciple Makers: Our aim is to live a life that leads to Jesus.
(Philippians 3:12-14, 17)

- III. As Disciples: Our aim is to follow those who are following hard after Jesus.
(Philippians 3:17; 1 Corinthians 11:1)

- IV. As Disciples: Our aim is to both reach God's enemies and protect God's family.
(Philippians 3:2-3, 18-19; Galatians 5:12; 1 Corinthians 9:19-22)

- V. As Disciple Makers: Our aim is to both avoid the path of destruction and to rescue others from it.
(Philippians 2:14-15; 3:18-19)

- VI. As Christians: Our mission in the temporary hinges upon a heart that hopes in eternity.
(Philippians 3:20-4:1)

Questions to Consider:

- In what ways would following you lead those who do closer to Jesus?
- How are you inviting others to “follow you” both inside & outside the church?
- If this has not been a focus, what are specific steps you/your household can take to prioritize this mission?
 - Step 1: Pray for God to lead you to a specific person/couple, both inside & outside the church
 - Step 2: Intentionally pursue them by setting aside space in your life for them
- In what ways would following you lead those who do further from Jesus?
- Who is someone you can pursue relationship with to help you to grow in these areas?
